February Updates:

- Interviews with clinicians for the ReCAPS process evaluation begin this week. Invitations will be sent to more clinicians in the next month, as required.
- Our data manager has advised that for a few participants the details of the government pension is left blank. If the participant refuses to answer, please just pop a note in the comments box (icon beside question) so that we know it is deliberately missing.
- When administering the EQ5D please ensure the participants are responding as to how they feel today (as in the day they are answering with you).
- The executive committee met over Zoom to discuss the trial's progress, joined by our UK-based investigator Prof Avril Drummond who joined us at 7am UK time. The chief investigators extended much appreciation for all your hard work.
